

1 Opens an aside menu that helps the user navigate through the whole website

2 Access to the search feature. Lets users search for events and artists according to their input

3 Opens another page containing all events and artists, with access to filters and sorts, making the search more detailed and easier

4 Lets users register an account or login to their already existing account

5 Sends users to the page where they can create events, if they are already logged in. Otherwise leads them to the login page

6 Access to the pages for each event with all the details and information of the selected event

7 Expands the selection of popular events shown in the main page

8 Access to the pages for each artist with information about them and their events

9 Expands the selection of popular artists shown in the main page

10 Access to a page with information about the project, its motivation and creators

11 Access to a page with information about the services provided by our website

12 Access to a page with the contacts of the creators of this website

13 Access to a page with frequently asked questions and answers to those